Privacy Notice

This privacy notice explains the personal data we collect about you as a consequence of you completing our nomination form for membership and competitions. If you have contacted either the Secretary or the Treasurer we may have recorded some personal details in order to answer your query and reply to you. This privacy notice explains how we store and handle the data, keep it safe and your rights.

RICHMOND PARK BOWLS CLUB - Nomination for membership

What information do we collect and why?

Personal information may include your name, age, date of birth, postal address, telephone number(s) and email address. This information is needed to answer your query or used in specific connection with the club's activities, such as publishing in the handbook, distribution of newsletters, details of social events and membership requests. Details of age bands are required by Bowls England and Bowls Hampshire for statistical purposes and are invariably asked for if we apply for grants.

How long do we keep personal information?

Whenever we collect personal information we will only keep it for as long as necessary for the purpose it was collected. A member's details will be retained for a year after leaving the club unless a request is made by the person whose data it is for it to be erased earlier.

Updating your information

From time to time, we will ask you to confirm that the information we hold is accurate and seek your agreement to us continuing to store it.

Sharing your information

We will never sell your information to other organizations for use for their own purposes. However, we do share your information with national, county and local associations where required for league registration and competition entry purposes.

Storing your information

Your information is only stored by the Hon. Secretary and the Hon. Treasurer at their homes on password protected computers and devices. A list of members' names and addresses will be kept in the steward's office.

Your rights

GDPR/Data Protection Act 2018 gives you certain rights over your data and how we use it. These include:

The right of access to personal data that RPBC holds about you

The right to have inaccurate data corrected

The right to have data deleted subject to certain conditions

The right to object to processing

By signing this form and completing the information overleaf, you are accepting Richmond Park Bowls Club's privacy policy.

New members must understand that the club committee cannot guarantee that they will be selected for any team or any preferred position.
