Privacy Notice

This privacy notice explains the personal data we collect about you as a consequence of completing our application form for membership of competitions. If you have contacted either the secretary or treasurer, we may have recorded some personal details to answer your query and reply to you. This privacy notice explains how we store and handle the data, keep it safe & your rights.

What information do we collect and why?

Personal information may include your name, age, DOB, postal address, telephone numbers & email address. This information is used in specific connection with the club's activities, such as publishing in the handbook, distribution of newsletters, details of social events & membership requests. Details of age bands are required by

Bowls England & Bowls Hants/Dorset for statistical purposes & are invariably asked if we agree for grants.

How long do we keep personal information?

Whenever we collect personal information, we only keep it for as long as necessary for the purpose it was collected. Members details will be retained for a year after you cease to be a member unless a request is made by the person whose data it is for to be erased earlier.

Updating your information

From time to time, we will ask you to confirm the information we hold is accurate & seek your agreement to us continuing to store it.

Sharing your information

We will never sell your information to other organisations to use for their own purposes. However, we do share your information with national, county & local associations where required for league registration & competition entry purposes.

Storing your information

Your information is only stored by the Hon. Secretary & Hon. Treasurer and is stored at their home & on password protected computers & devices. A list of members & addresses will be kept in the steward's office.

Your rights

GDPR/Data protection act 2018 gives you certain rights over your data and how we use it. This includes:

The right of access to personal data that RPBC holds about you.

The right to have inaccurate data corrected

The right to have data deleted subject to certain conditions.

The right to object to processing.

By signing this form & completing the information overleaf, you are accepting RPBC private policy.

New members must understand that the club committee cannot guarantee that they will be selected for any team of any preferred position.

Please return completed form to:

Hon Secretary
